Individually-styled accommodation at Santiburi comprises 59 deluxe Thai style villas, 12 Equatorial suites and 2 Presidential suites. All feature superbly appointed sitting rooms, bedrooms and private terraces. In a triumph of East-meets-West interior design, the ultimate in modern deluxe amenities is blended with classical Oriental decor and furnishings.

As perfect as the accommodation is the choice of fine dining. The Vimarnmek Restaurant, open from early morning to late night, offers a tempting selection of Western and Asian specialities. For a different flavour, guests can relish traditional Royal Thai cuisine at the Sala Thai. Providing a beachfront venue is Rim Talay, serving delicious meals and tropical drinks, while refreshments are also available at the Poolside Bar. For relaxing and enjoying drinks, afternoon tea or evening cocktails, the Taksin Lounge promises a tranquil rendezvous.

Santiburi also provides a wide variety of sports and recreation. There is a 50-metre swimming pool, children's pool, whirlpool, tennis and squash courts, fitness & health centre and indoor games, as well as facilities for sailing and windsurfing.

Should business be mixed with pleasure, a fully-equipped boardroom is ideal for meetings and seminars.

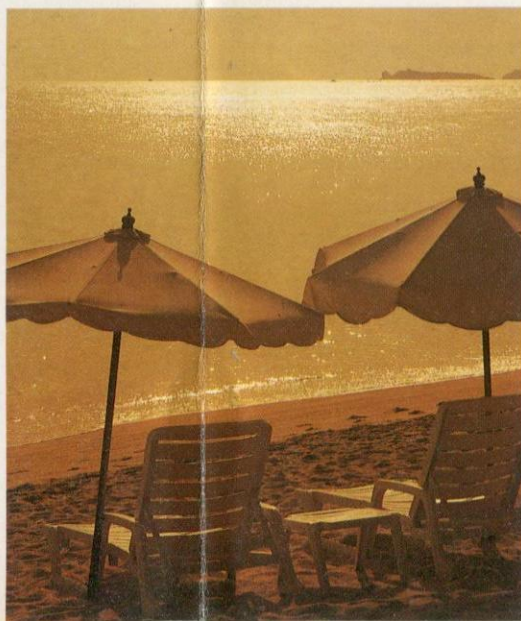

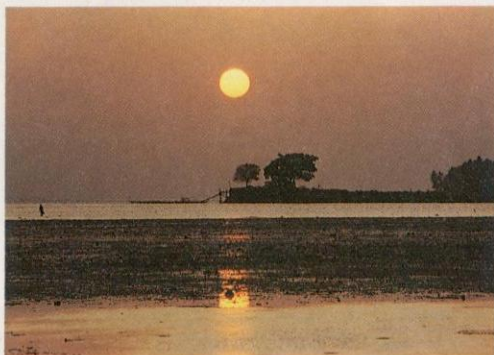

Completing a stay in paradise is personalized service, the hallmark of unsurpassed Dusit hospitality.

Samui, set like an exquisite emerald in a sapphire-blue sea, is a gem of a tropical island. Lush greenery covers the interior, while fringing the cove-studded shore are magnificent sandy beaches bathed by the warm waters of the Gulf of Thailand.

In this idyllic setting, at Mae Nam Bay, is Santiburi Dusit Resort. Here the discerning traveller can appreciate a truly individual style of luxury. In harmony with its surroundings and commanding panoramic vistas, deluxe accommodation is set amid acres of tropical gardens, palm groves and the island's largest freshwater pool to offer the perfect dream of an exotic hideaway.

Santiburi Dusit Resort

Koh Samui is possibly Thailand's loveliest tropical island, and Santiburi Dusit Resort has earned an unparalleled reputation for offering the most luxurious and secluded hideaway on Samui.

Located on the island's tranquil northern tip, 12 kilometres from Samui airport, a 1-hour flight south of Bangkok, Santiburi combines uniquely designed deluxe accommodation with a setting of rare natural beauty. The resort faces a superb beach, while all around are 23 acres of landscaped tropical gardens.

This splendid escape into an idyllic island world is complemented by the finest modern comforts, choice of dining and variety of sporting options to ensure the perfect stay.

*Facilities at Santiburi Dusit Resort are truly
deluxe, all designed to be in total harmony
with the natural surroundings to promise
a tranquil retreat.*

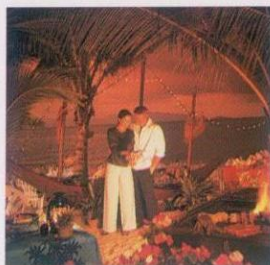

Like a luxurious private home, individual accommodation is provided by 12 Equatorial suites, 57 deluxe villas and 2 Santiburi suites, each designed in traditional Thai style and sumptuously appointed with all modern amenities.

Each of Santiburi's three restaurants affords romantic settings for dining, either in airconditioned comfort or on palm-shaded, open-air terraces cooled by the sea breeze.

Luxury in a tropical paradise

From the luxury of uniquely styled accommodation, guests can relish a relaxing stay in a tropical paradise, complementing lazing on the beach with the pleasure of Santiburi's restaurants and other facilities.

A choice of fine dining is provided by two restaurants, Sala Thai, specialising in Royal Thai cuisine, and Vimarnmek which presents a delicious menu of East-meets-West dishes. Drinks and light meals can be enjoyed at the Rim Talay Beach Bar, Pool Bar and Taksin Lobby Lounge.

Other facilities include board room, fitness centre, Thai traditional massage, swimming pool, whirlpool, watersports, tennis courts, squash court, mini golf driving range, volleyball and indoor games.

Whether the preference is simply for peaceful, idle hours by the pool or more active fun with a variety of watersports, Santiburi offers the best of Samui.
